WHO IS A YOUTH WORKER?

A youth worker is a person who helps young people with their personal, social and educational development in an informal setting using educational processes, care and leisure approaches.

METHODOLOGY AND ACTIVITIES

The training course invites participant to embark on an engaging and dynamic learning journey with a vibrant blend of non-formal education (NFE) methods and active participation, spotlighting the captivating realms of improvisational and forum theatre methodologies.

Participants will dive into the transformative world of forum theatre, an inclusive and interactive theatrical form renowned for achieving social change. Rooted in the Theatre of the Oppressed by Brazilian director Augusto Boal, this methodology empowers the audience to shape the performance, breaking down the traditional barriers between spectators and actors.

The course presents a bold structure, centered around relevant social and political themes. With a focus on current issues significant to young people, forum theatre invites to collaboration and active participation.

Participants will have the opportunity to join engaging workshops that delve into the heart of forum theatre and improvisational theatre. They will uncover the nuances of inclusion and community engagement, amplifying their skills and understanding in a setting designed to spark creativity and foster meaningful connections.

Join us in shaping a training experience that transcends traditional boundaries and invites you to be an active agent of change.

TRAVEL

Let's be green as much as possible. We encourage you not to take the plane, even if this takes more time and might take extra effort. Of course we know it is not always possible depending on from where you are travelling, the time your studies/ job/ everyday life gives you etc.

However: Planes are massively responsible for the climate crisis and through our projects we would like to contribute to a more sustainable planet, not to a less sustainable one. Compare the emissions that your journey emits by train, car or plane: <http://www.ecopassenger.org/>

After knowing each arrival time, we can assist you to reach Targoviste from Bucharest.

Arrival day: 20.03.2024

Departure day: 27.03.2024

You can arrive two days (19/03, 20/03 2024) before the project or leave two days (27/03, 28/03 2024) after the project. According to the financial agreement we can not cover travel, accommodation and food costs for additional days.

Targoviste is 80 km from Bucharest (1h45 minutes – 2h by train). To reach Targoviste you have to take the train/bus/plane to Bucharest.

From the airport you can reach Bucharest North Train Station by train and from there change the train to Targoviste. From Targoviste train station you can reach easily Hotel Dambovita by walking – is 15 minutes away.

You can also take a taxi or Bolt to reach the hotel, but the cost of taxi or Bolt can not be reimbursed.

SEE YOU SOON!

Did you know about TARGOVISTE?

Targoviste was one of the most important cities in the history of Wallachia (Tara Romaneasca). In 1859, Wallachia united with Moldavia to form the United Principalities, which adopted the name Romania in 1866.

Targoviste is the home land of the real Dracula. The character Dracula was actually inspired by the cruel ruler Vlad Tepes who reigned in Targoviste.

Targoviste was the old capital city of (Wallachia) Tara Romanesca for more than 300 years and is rich in history. The symbol of the city is Chindia Tower.

The first BOOK in Tara Romaneasca was printed in Targoviste, at Dealu Monastery in the XVI century.
